Lake Nakuru National Park

You've been dreaming of your safari for so long and now it's finally about to begin. You'll meet your guide who will tell you everything you need to know to get your safari started. We're as excited as you are to get your trip underway.

On your visit to Lake Nakuru National Park, you can expect some fantastic wildlife experiences. Flamingos have returned to the lake in varying numbers. You might also see tree-climbing lions, endangered Rothschild's giraffes, and the park's thriving populations of both black and white rhinos. And because the park is relatively compact, your chances of seeing these and other animals are excellent. The park's scenery, too, is a highlight, with the picturesque lake as a centerpiece. The acacia woodlands are especially pretty, and the views of the lake are best from the Out of Africa Lookout (where some scenes from the 1985 film were shot).

Sarova Lion Hill Game Lodge

Lodge | Inside Lake Nakuru National Park

Tucked away amid tree-covered foothills in a quiet corner of Lake Nakuru National Park, Sarova Lion Hill Game Lodge is your excellent base for exploring the park. Classic lodge-style rooms look down the valley, and the fine facilities include a good buffet-style restaurant, an appealing swimming pool, a bar and a gift shop. Best of all, you're in the heart of the park's rich wildlife areas almost as soon as you leave the hotel.

Lake Naivasha

Of all Kenya's Rift Valley lakes, high-altitude Lake Naivasha offers the richest variety of experiences. There's lots to do here, and you might even see zebras, giraffes or hippos. Its human story is also fascinating: Lake Naivasha was popular with colonial types as an escape from the city, and it plays a similar role for locals now, especially on weekends.

Lake Naivasha Resort

You can walk right down to the lakeshore without leaving the property at Lake Naivasha Resort. Aside from the excellent location on the lake's eastern shore, and the lovely green grounds that are perfect for strolling, you'll love the other facilities that include bars, restaurants, swimming pools and a range of rooms.

Hell's Gate National Park

Hell's Gate is unlike any other national park in Kenya. For a start, it's the only one where you're allowed to get out of your vehicle to walk and cycle. That's because the park is largely free of predators, leaving the zebras, giraffes, impalas, buffaloes and rock hyraxes (and human visitors) to roam without fear. The red-rock cliffs of Hell's Gate Gorge are stunning with some weird-and-wonderful rock formations, and the narrow Lower Gorge is a wonderful place to explore.

Masai Mara National Reserve

Many travelers fall in love with the Masai Mara National Reserve at first sight, and it's really easy to do. Here you can go looking for big cats, elephant, giraffe, hippo, buffalo, wildebeest, zebra and more (including black rhinos in the Mara Triangle). Birders come because more than 500 species have been recorded in the Mara. And best of all, you get to do it all across one of Kenya's best examples of classic safari terrain. The Masai Mara is a wonderful world of endless savannah grasslands, acacia woodlands and rolling hill country rising to the escarpments that line the reserve's perimeter. The Mara also lies in the heart of Maasai country.

Ashnil Mara Camp

Tented camp | Inside Masai Mara National Reserve

Stay deep in the Masai Mara National Reserve at Ashnil Mara Camp where you'll be surrounded by trees overlooking a bend in the Mara River. You can often see hippos and crocodiles down below the camp. The wood-floored safari tents are luxurious, and everything here is excellent, from the service and the restaurant, to the bar, swimming pool, and the spa center.

Amboseli National Park

It's possible that you'll never want to leave Amboseli National Park. It's a remarkable place that combines wonderful wildlife viewing with astonishing views, even though it's one of Kenya's smallest major parks. Look for lions and cheetahs, zebras and giraffes, spotted hyenas and wildebeest. Best of all when it comes to animals, Amboseli is known for its population of big-tusked elephants that you can often get really close to. Watching over it all is Mt Kilimanjaro (5895m), Africa's tallest mountain that towers over Amboseli's (and Kenya's) southern boundary.

Accommodation | Day 7

Amboseli Serena Safari Lodge

Lodge | Inside Amboseli National Park

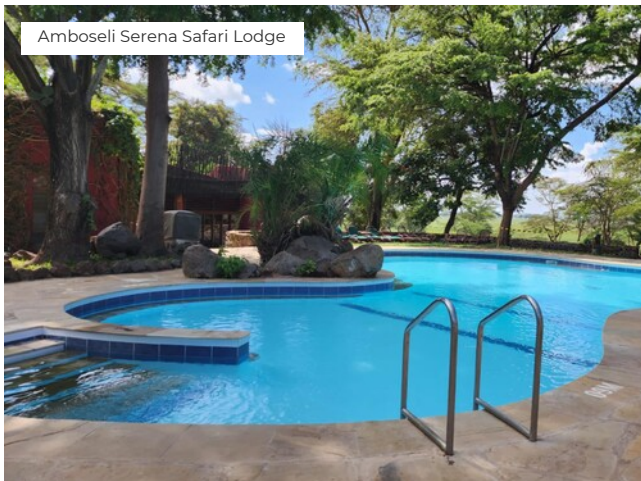

Your base in Amboseli National Park is the excellent Amboseli Serena Safari Lodge. It has the advantage of being one of just a handful of places inside the park: as soon as you leave the lodge grounds, you're in the heart of the park's incredible wildlife areas. Facilities include restaurant, bar, swimming pool and gift shop, and classic safari colors adorn the large rooms.

Tsavo East National Park

There's a good chance you'll see male lions without manes and elephants that have a strange red color (from taking a bath in the park's red dust) here in Tsavo East. Out on the dry plains in the east of the park, cheetahs are often seen hunting. You can also look for Somali ostrich (which is seen nowhere else this far south in Kenya), gerenuk (the antelope that wants to be a giraffe) and the hard-to-spot hirola antelope. Apart from the Somali ostrich, nearly 500 bird species have been recorded at Tsavo East.

- Lunch & Dinner
- Non-alcoholic drinks

Accommodation | Day 9
Ashnil Aruba Lodge

Tented camp | Inside Tsavo East National Park

Your base for exploring Tsavo East National Park is the lovely Ashnil Aruba Lodge. You'll sleep in safari tents or rooms, all of which look out over the plains or Aruba Dam: keep an eye out for elephants, lions, cheetahs and more. There are also views from the bar and restaurant, and there's a swimming pool to help you cool off in the Tsavo heat.
